FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"This is my beloved Son, listen to Him" (Mark 9:7)
The scene known as the Transfiguration of Jesus in today's Gospel tells us that the three disciples heard a voice from the cloud that said to them: "This is my beloved Son, listen to Him". The season of Lent that has recently begun, should to be a privileged time to hear Jesus. In fact, last week we heard Jesus say: "Repent and believe in the Gospel" and next week the readings will tell us: "Do not make my Father's house a market." So it's the great challenge of Lent to reflect on what has been separating us from God and to ask for his forgiveness. The first reading shows us that Abraham, our father in faith, is a model of total surrender to God's commands. We always have to see this reading in its context in order not to draw wrong conclusions. God may sometimes ask of us more than we can understand. We on our part are willing to give almost anything but not what we consider most valuable of our lives.
Abraham is willing to sacrifice Isaac, the son of the covenant, to be faithful to God. God meanwhile looks at our hearts and does not allow the death of the innocent and so He intervenes beyond all hope. Thus, far from lamenting our losses in the past, we have to trust in the God of Abraham and Isaac beyond all hope. The Letter to the Romans is like a mirror that reflects and enlarges the sacrifice of Abraham. Indeed, St. Paul tells us that God "did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us." Throughout this letter, Paul speaks of what is known as the doctrine of justification. Jesus was faithful to the will of His Father and trusted beyond his suffering and death. Believers have been saved by the sacrifice of the only Son of God and this is our salvation. In today's Gospel, Jesus is transfigured and appeared in the splendor of His glory surrounded by Moses and Elijah before three of his disciples. It is interesting that Peter, James and John beyond being impressed are terrified with this. They are more confused when Jesus told them that He will rise again from the dead. Like Abraham, we are not prepared for what God would possibly be asking of us or what Jesus' 3 disciples wanted to hear. Moreover, Peter was unable to understand that Jesus had to suffer, die and then be Risen from the dead. Even if our faith may be strong or weak, God always has a place for everyone. Abraham is a model of deep faith while Peter is presented in the Gospels as one who is of weak faith. For instance, on the Mt. Tabor Peter questioned Jesus; in Gethsemane Peter is sleeping and in Jerusalem he even denies his Master. However, Jesus chose Peter to lead his Church as God chose Abraham to be the father of his chosen people. Now that we are preparing to celebrate the five years of the election of Pope Francis, successor of Peter, we humbly ask God that our Pope may not waiver in his faith and continue leading Christ's church in the good and bad days of our lives.

A LENTEN ROSARY - As we pray the rosary during Lent we meditate on the five sorrowful mysteries:

Agony in the Garden: We say with humble heart: "I Desire True Repentance for My Sins" and think of Our Lord Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane, suffering a bitter agony for our sins.

Scourging at the Pillar: We say with humble heart: "I Desire a Spirit of Mortification" and reflect on the cruel scourging at the pillar that our lord suffered; the heavy blows that tore His flesh.

Crowning with Thorns: We say with humble heart: "I Desire Moral Courage" and meditate on the crown of sharp thorns that was forced upon our Lord's sacred Head and the patience with which He endured the pain for our sins.

Carrying of the Cross: We say with humble heart: "I Desire the Virtue of Patience" and contemplate the heavy Cross, so willingly carried by our Lord. We ask Him to help us carry our crosses without complaint.

The Crucifixion: We say with humble heart: "I Desire the Grace of Final Perseverance" and pause to consider the love which filled Christ's Sacred Heart during His three hour of agony on the Cross. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
